Personal and Confidential

ESTATE OF JOHN L MACK
c/o JENNIFER A. FRACASSI
24725 W12 MILE RD STE 110
SOUTHFIELD, MI 48034

Subject: ACTION REQUIRED – Potential Death Benefits Payable from the FCA US LLC - UAW Pension Agreement

Dear JENNIFER A. FRACASSI:

Based on our records, you may be the executor or heir that represents the estate of JOHN L MACK. Our records indicate that JOHN L MACK was a participant or beneficiary in the FCA US LLC - UAW Pension Agreement (the "Plan"). Under the terms of the Plan, payments were required to be paid from the Plan prior to JOHN L MACK's death. These benefits are now owed to JOHN L MACK's estate.

Estate Documents

If you are the executor or heir authorized to receive benefits owed to the estate of JOHN L MACK, you will need to provide the document granting you that authority. If a formal estate process was opened, this document will be in the form of Letters Testamentary, Letters of Administration, or a similar document issued by the court.

If no estate process has been started, it appears, based on the amount of the benefits payable which is estimated to be $41,364.24 as of 01/01/2023, and the laws of the state where JOHN L MACK, lived at the time of death, that a simplified process may be available. Some states permit assets to be recovered through use of an affidavit with little or no court involvement, if certain conditions are met. The affidavit is usually called a small estate affidavit, or affidavit for collection of personal property. You may obtain further information on the small estate or collection of personal property affidavit process, and possibly sample forms, from your state probate court or probate court website.

You may refer to the Frequently Asked Questions attached below for further information about the estate process. You may also contact the Benefit Connect Service Center at 1-888-409-3300. Please be aware that we cannot offer you legal advice. We strongly encourage you to consult with your legal advisor while considering these questions, including whether a formal or small estate process is appropriate, before you take any action regarding the estate, or complete or return any of the documents attached.
